CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS

HOLLY was in token of the Crown of Thorns placed on Christ's head at the Crucifixion, the red berries being symbolic of His blood. But long before Christianity there was a tradition of bringing evergreens into the house in winter. The gods and goddesses were believed to take refuge in evergreens in the cold weather, when all the leaves had left the other trees, and to bring them into the house was kind to them and of course brought good luck to the household.

MISTLETOE was held sacred by the Druids the priests of a very old religion which was widespread in the British Isles. But it has its own story that explains why it must always hang in the centre of a room and never against a wall. This story comes from Norse Mythology. Baldur, a very handsome young and very popular god, woke one morning after a very bad dream. Even when he woke up he was not free from it and felt a very heavy pain on his heart. He went to his mother, Frigga, the Queen of the gods and told her about it. She was greatly distressed, for she knew it meant that Baldur would be badly hurt by something, but she found a way of avoiding this. She called everything to her...metal, stones, lightening, fire, water, anything that could possibly harm him. Then she and Baldur ceased to worry. The other gods invented a new game, hurling stones, spears, sticks, and everything they could find at Baldur and shouting with glee as all the weapons swerved to avoid him. But an evil god, Loki who was jealous of Baldur, went to Frigga disguised as an old woman and asked if everything there had promised to spare her son. Frigga said that everything had promised except for a little plant which grew on an old oak tree and she had not asked it as it was too small to do any harm. Loki went and cut off a sprig of mistletoe. Then going to where the young gods were playing, he spied Baldur's twin brother wistfully standing to one side, unable to join in because he was blind. Loki asked if he would like to throw something too and he told him he had a little stick and would guide his aim. The young god agreed and took the mistletoe, shot it through the air and struck Baldur and killed him. And today, although the story may be forgotten, the evil that may lurk in the mistletoe is not forgotten and must be hung in the middle of the room where it is not harmful.

SANTA CLAUS is a corruption of Saint Nicholas, a good and kind saint, who is the patron saint of children, sailors, merchants and bakers. He is reported to have helped many people and one legend is that three girls could not get married as they were too poor to have dowries; he threw purses or gold through their windows. This may account for the belief that he comes down chimneys. But this tradition does not hold good in Germany and Scandinavia. There his feast is the celebration held on the 6th December when he comes around armed with a list of children who have been good or naughty. The good ones are given sweets and nuts and the bad ones are whipped.

FISHING NEWS

Angler's Diary-- 24th December - St.Helens Game Fishing Club Rally Day. 28th January 1979 Scamander Angling Club bream contest at Scamander River.

Last Sunday, Scamander Angling Club held a surf contest at Four Mile and created an unwelcome record - no fish were caught. This is the first time that this has occurred. Let us hope that it will be the last. Half way through the season, Lindsay Sutton has landed the heaviest fish so far (21lb 3½ oz) Mrs. E. Jameison leads the ladies with a 12 oz salmon. Last edition, I overlooked that one Scamander member won the Tasmanian beach championships at Swansea. Despite this honour Kevin Littlejohn went home with his pants wet last Sunday. No reports have been received from the tuna front. Warmer weather will be needed but anglers will try their luck on Christmas Eve. The only game fishing news is that a charter boat is expected at St.Helens shortly but the advertised cost per day will give anglers the horrors. $350 per day with food & drink supplied. We would expect the food to be served by topless waitresses on gold plates plus french Champagne and vintage Para port & cigars for the price. There would still be the risk of seasickness. As this will probably be the last edition for the year, I wish all anglers the compliments of the season & tight lines for 1979.

ST. HELENS GUN CLUB

This Sunday, 17th December, should be a great shoot day for St.Helens Gun Club. A varied day of shooting has been programmed with extremely good prizes for the successful shooters.

Main events of the day are the "State Deauville Doubles Championship" (selected partners) shot from 22m. A coveted state sash plus a badge and trophy go to the winning pair of this event. The 30 target double barrel "Ansett Airlines/Sunkey" Handicap has for first prize a return air fare for two to Melbourne. A special prize for the best junior shooter is also a feature of this event.

APPRECIATION

Would the people of the Fingal Valley and East coast please accept this letter as my gesture of appreciation for the help they have given me during my fund raising with the Multicap Quest.

Since my involvement with the quest I have had my mind broadened to the problems of Multiply Handicapped people and fundraising is just a small way of helping but a small effort is better than none at all. So with this I hope that you will support the next entrant as you have supported me.

Signed Carmen.

VOLLEYBALL COMPETITION.

The final round of the ladies roster was played on the 5th. December and both games resulted in upset wins with the 3rd. & 4th. placed teams defeating the 1st. & 2nd. teams.

Game 1: Bankcard played their best game of the roster and easily accounted for top side Trendsettass 3-1. It was a true team effort from Bankcard and if they can continue this form in the next roster they should be definite contenders for the final. All played well for Bankcard and for Trendsettass Jenny Midson & Debbie French.

Game 2: The vastly improved Blackwoods put in a very strong performance beating Kiwis 3-0, amassing 45-26 points in the game. This side are also shaping very well now after a slow start to the roster and with Cindy Bosworth adding more height to their team will be a hard combination to crack next roster. Best all played well for Blackwoods (only 5 players too) and for Kiwis, Mary Targett, Atholie Greenwood & Paula Cook played well for her 1st. game.

LADIES GRAND FINAL NIGHT.

A crowd of over 100 people attended the grand final with two thirds of them seeing womens' volleyball for the first time.

The night started with a challenge game between men's premiers Adidas and a combined team with Adidas stretching their now unbeaten record to 16 games, winning 3-1. The game was of a fair standard with Adidas not really being extended at any time. The combined side found it hard not having played together before but improved as the game progressed.

GRAND FINAL.

The grand final started with both Trendsettass & Kiwis looking very smart in their uniforms and Kiwis going to an early lead in the 1st. game, due to some strong play from Mary Targett. Some very good rallies and services were being played and Trendsettass organised their game better and gradually overhauled Kiwis to win the 1st. set 15-11.

Karlene Richards & Atholie Greenwood tried hard to get Kiwis back into the match in the 2nd. game but Jenny Midson & the French sisters had other ideas and Trendsettass won 15-9. The 3rd. game had Kiwis coach Kent Wells scratching his head for an answer as his team was playing well but still could not overcome Trendsettass. Phillip Midson, the coach of Trendsettass, must have had confidence in his charges as he never felt the need to call a time-out during the night. Trendsettass won the game 15-7 to win the grand final 3-0. Best players for Trendsettass were Julie Wright, Jenny Midson & Margaret French and for Kiwis Karlene Richards, Atholie Greenwood and Joss Lynch.

The winning team were presented with individual trophies by Cr. Keith Cook.

Thanks must again go to the sponsors for both the mens and ladies teams for their generous help during the roster, and they are:

Adidas, J.C. Huttons, C.B.A. Bank (2 teams), Jetset Tours, Alpine Cigarette Co., New Zealand Insce. Trendsetta and Blackwood Hodge.

MENS MEETING.

On Monday night at 7.30 at the Football Sheds a meeting will be held for all men interested in playing in the summer roster. Team nominations (both old & new) must be in at this meeting so as the roster can be finalised. A committee will be formed and rules of the competition set down. Also starting dates, umpiring, finals, equipment, fees, trophies etc. will be discussed. At this stage it appears that at least 2 new sides will enter the competition and they are T.R.C. Hotel and the Rebels. Teams from St. Helens and other places are welcome to join but their nominations must be in by Monday. Anyone at present not playing with a team and wishing to play please attend this meeting or let someone know.

LICOLA VILLAGE LICOLA

WHAT IS LICOLA?

Eight years ago the Lions Clubs of Victoria and Tasmania purchased the Licola Villiage property - 4 acres on one side of the Jamieson Road where it crosses the Macalister River, and 29 acres on the other side. The price was $20,000.

The value today is about $1,000,000. This increase in value has been brought about by donations from commercial organisations running into hundreds of thousands of dollars in materials, discounts and in other ways. Lions members contributed many thousands of man-hours.

At a critical time in the development of the project an entire Army engineering unit of more than 200 men and tons of heavy equipment devoted six weeks' continuous labour to the enterprise. The value of their effort was incalculable.

Licola has become one of the largest, most comprehensive and well equipped youth camps in Australia.

So impressed was the State Government with the scheme that it contributed monies running into 5 figures. Licola belongs to the Lions Clubs of Victoria and Tasmania who administer it on behalf of the thousands of children in these areas who may, through their local Lions Club, take advantage of the chance for an unforgettable holiday experience.

Who can attend?

Any child, boy or girl, aged 8 to 12 years who would not otherwise have this particular holiday. There are no other qualifications.

How much does it cost?

Nothing - not one cent. This is your local Lions Club at work.

Who do you see about it?

Simply write to Licola Box 70, St. Marys, 7215.

ANZAC AWARDS

The Returned Services League of Australia is promoting Annual Anzac Awards to give a degree of continuity to Anzac Day. The Awards fall into two categories:-

1. An Anzac Peace Award, only one of which will be presented to an Australian citizen each year, to recognise outstanding efforts in promoting international understanding, and in so doing, making a contribution to world peace.

2. Anzac of the Year Awards - 7 of which will be awarded annually, to recognise the efforts of ordinary Australians who give service to their fellow human beings in some positive and compassionate way.

Eligibility for both awards is extended to any Australian citizens, or one who has made an application to become an Australian citizen of either sex and of any age.

Nominations for the 1979 awards will close on 31st December next. The St. Marys Sub-Branch of the R.S.L.A. invites any organisation or individual to submit nominations. Any nomination should not be discussed with the nominee. Further details may be obtained by contacting Mr. Bob Jackson 725183.
