FISHING NEWS.

Forthcoming events:- Sunday 18th June (next Sunday) Scamander versus St Helens surf contest at Four Mile beach from 11am to 3pm (weather permitting). Saturday 8th July- Scamander Angling Club annual meeting & dinner at 6-30 pm at Scamander Hotel- Motel. Sunday 16th July - Multiple surf contest at Four Mile from 11am to 4pm with barbeque lunch. Both St Helens & Scamander Clubs want as many members as possible to fish next Sunday. Recent catches indicates that it takes about ten anglers to land one fish these days so a large number will be required to reach a clear decision. The staff at Scamander Hotel have kindly polished the shield in anticipation of hanging it back on the same nail on Sunday evening. Five hours fishing at Mariposa last weekend produced one garfish, one mackerel & one skate. The last one bent a rod holder made of half inch reinforcing iron before breaking the 20lb line on the edge of the surf. No other reports have been received despite the amazing forecast of our friend "Don." If that man had to live on the fish which he says are these to be caught, he would starve to death in a short time. Scamander Angling Club Committee will suggest to the annual meeting that a minimum length for salmon be applied to all future contests. It seems ridiculous that a fish weighing as little as 2oz should gain a trophy for the angler. The Sea Fisheries Regulations provide for minimum sizes for certain species but do not include salmon (eg. Mullet 20 cm or approx 8 inches). Please think about this & air your views at the meeting.

Dear Sir,

The first of the St. Marys Councillors report in the Valley Voice shows their inability to cope with Ward matters. 1. Scamander Water in the two years I was in the Council, this matter came up continually. But the whole council could not come to a decision about it, because 75 percent of those present at the meetings did not have the ability or the knowledge to make a decision. Those Councillors who had the knowledge to tackle the problem were out voted. 2. St. Marys Water: This matter is very serious but the same things apply. None of the Ward Councillors have the ability to tackle it. 3. The rats are still thriving at the tip. They did not get washed out as one of the residents of the Flat nearly did. In this case a new arrival on the Flat with no knowledge of the local conditions and would take no notice of the local residents who have lived there for more than 30 years filled in the natural waterway that takes the flood waters from the Flat. I tried for 18 months while on the Council to get them to issue an order for this person to remove the filling he had blocked it with, but to no avail. Now after the last rains, the Council and Ward Councillors have to get it removed. How right I was. More in four weeks.

Trevor F. Lohrey.

Dear Sir,

I wonder what the people, who pinch vases from the cemetery will do with them? Will they put them on other graves? or take them home? or sell them? or just smash them up? as so many have been. Those vases have been put there by people to remember their relatives and friends. pg.8

COUNCIL NEWS CONTINUED.

Users are asked to use the trench not its approaches and edges. Sealed plastic rubbish bags are recommended for food and other putrescible wastes. Woodchip Route: Council is concerned that St. Marys streets maybe used as part of the main route for log trucks when logging operations commence north of St. Marys. An objection to the use of town streets has been lodged with the Minister for Energy and Resources Mr. Lohrey M.H.A. Council believes that besides street damage there could be considerable traffic and pedestrian dangers, especially form the junction of the Tasman and Esk Highways (the Hotel Corner) to the School. You may have noticed there is a similar situation at Orford and the people there at a recent public meeting voted 98 - 6 against log trucks using their streets as part of their route.

SCAMANDER TENNIS CLUB

It is with regret that I have to report that because of the un-fulfilled promises of the Portland Council our club will loose the $500.00 given to it by the government according to Mr. Robin Gray, Local Member for Wilmot, who telephoned me on Wednesday 14th about the matter. Mr. Gray also informed me that he had taken it on himself to go and see the Council Clerk while he was in the district but he proved very in-different on the matter saying that they had not been informed as to when the work had to be done by and at this stage there would be no way that it would be done by the end of June. This statement was true as we were informed by Mr. Nelson on the 20th January that the work was in the councils March/April programme, we took their word that this would be carried out. As March came and still no sign of the council we invited the members to a meeting to be held on the 5th April, two members apologised before hand but not one person turned up. After a letter to our local paper we received another apology and an invitation to meet two councillors on the site of the court and discuss the matter (we thank those men for coming down) It was arranged that work would start next week (mid - May) but as the end of June fastly approaches I am sorry to say that the work still has not been done and the money will be withdrawn as we could not make use of it. What a shame that the men who are looking after our municipality have no interest in making it a better place to live and holiday in.

My personal opinion is that these men should take a holiday to the Gold Coast and the Sunshine Coast and see what the councils do up there to improve the fascilities for everyone to use, where there is a space big enough to use they put in parks, seats and benches, play areas, toilets, water fountains and rock gardens, anything to make the place a better one for both families living in the area and the tourist. When we look around our area we are sadly lacking something.

S. Rawnsley.
Secretary.

who have gone before them, so its not very kind to smash up something like that. I would not like it done to me, so I will not do it to someone else. These things come home to roost.

Signed: Upset.

A MEETING WITH THE C.E.S.

As requested by the Community Youth Support Scheme, the Commonwealth Employment Service will bring a team to St.Marys Hall at 11 pm on Thursday, 6th July, to discuss all aspects of the C.E.S. and unemployment problems with those interested.

The team will comprise of Miss Naomi King Manager of Launceston C.E.S., Terry Searson, Senior Employment Officer, and Ann Boer, Special Groups Employment Officer. They are conversant with all aspects of C.E.S. procedure. Terry has recently been working with the receiving and filling of jobs, and with the C.Y.S.S. Ann has been looking after special groups of unemployed including the handicapped, long-term unemployed, ex-prisoners and other disadvantaged groups.

They will come with information on the N.E.A.T. Scheme including the special youth employment training programme (S.Y.E.T.P.). The current weekly rate for N.E.A.T. on-the-job subsidy is $56.00 per week for adult trainees and $41.00 for junior trainees. The subsidy is payable to an employer who is seeking a worker through the C.E.S. and unable to get some-one suitably skilled. In these circumstances, the employer can be subsidised for training a C.E.S. applicant who appears capable of fitting into the job after a training period. The S.Y.E.T.P. has been set up to assist young unemployed between the ages of 15 and 24 years if they have been unemployed for four months out of the past 12 months. This scheme gives an employer a subsidy of $67.00 per week for a period of 6 months in return for giving employment with training. If you want information on training schemes, unemployment benefits and job opportunities, you are welcome to attend. It is hoped as many people as possible, especially the young unemployed of the Fingal Valley, will come to St.Marys to meet the C.E.S.

For further information on the meeting please contact Michael Watts at the Council Chambers Fingal.

MULTICAP RAFFLE.

A Patch-Work Quilt has been made by the Community Youth Support Scheme and donated to Multicap to be raffled, tickets will be on sale next week. The C.Y.S.S. would like to thank Mrs. Gillies of Fingal for knitting the lining and Mrs.Davernport of Fingal and other for donations of wool and materials etc.

JUDO

Mrs. Cathy Larby will be teaching Judo lessons on Wednesday afternoon at the Fingal Municipal Hall. Lessons start at 2.00pm and any-one interested is welcome. Please wear baggy clothes. The Judo is being run in conjunction with the Community Youth Support Scheme.

COUNCIL NEWS

Sprays: There has been much publicity lately concerning herbicide sprays 245T and 24D whose chief agent is the unbelievably deadly dioxin. In it's vegetation control spraying, Council is pleased to say it has never used either of these controversial sprays. The Rubbish Tips: The licence to allow council to establish refuse tips is issued by the Department of the Environment. The licence has many conditions governing the use of tips; governing both users and operators. Those governing the operators are now being progressively heeded. A vermin control program is in operation to reduce the resident rat population. Also covering of material has been arranged. This frequently will be increased in the summer-time.

"JUST YARNIN'"

Major Humphrey Grey and family finally arrived in Van Diemens Land from Ireland c.1828 after having spent 2 years on the way owing to being shipwrecked, and then going on to Rio de Janeiro to await another ship to Australia.

They were welcomed in Launceston by a brother, Captain James Humphrey of 'Rockford' (now incorporated in the 'Benham' Estate). They stayed at the Cornwall Hotel until they were all ready to begin the long journey by bullock wagon to Avoca. For 2 years the family stayed at 'Rockford' while their own comfortable stone house at 'East Bourne' was being built, some land cleared and a few fences erected. The house was lined with cedar for a ship with a load of this wood had been wrecked in the Tamar and the cargo sold off at a farthing per foot, and consequently many of the early settlers' homes were panelled in cedar and graced with beautiful staircases, and inside shutters of the same material. Quite a number of the convicts were skilled carpenters taking a pride in their work under kind employers.

The Humphrey Greys had 5 children, 3 of whom were girls and what with the 68th Regiment stationed at Avoca and the general shortage of young women in the colony they were besieged with hopeful callers, especially for Margaret who though only 16 was very lively and pretty. The younger, and quieter sister Catherine was a little later on much admired by young William Talbot out in Van Diemens Land on a visit to his Aunt and Uncle at 'Malahide'. However his Grandfather insisted he make the grand tour of Europe with a tutor as was the custom then, before settling down. So William sought permission to ask Catherine to marry him on his return. It seemed from his letter to Catherine written in Italy, that he was most impatient to get back, but instead both he and the tutor caught a fever from which William did not recover.

Catherine Grey did not marry, but always wore the beautiful family ring William sent her. She was a beauty and also much admired for her sweet nature and kindness. Later on she owned a property of her own which was managed by the late Leslie Steel before he married Miss Selina Littlechild and bought the family farm 'Enstone Park'.

HOW TO PLANT NATIVES

During a recent visit to Hobart, I was invited to attend a demonstration 'Planting out Natives'. Over some years I have planted several hundred with many successful and growing to maturity. On the other hand losses have been numerous and sometimes unaccountable. Perhaps I had not been planting them correctly? Sure enough I hadn't. The demonstration by Mr. Alan Gray of Hobart proved to be of the greatest benefit to a compulsive planter like me. As in cooking an exotic meal it is better to watch it actually being prepared and cooked rather than simply to read the recipe - so with planting. However I shall do my best with a "recipe".

First, dig a fair sized hole about 2' diameter and 1' deep. Remove grass and break up the soil to a friable consistency. Return enough soil to the hole so that the plant will sit level with the ground. A handful of Blood and Bone is beneficial at this point. Knock plant from the pot. Loosen the soil at the bottom and tease the roots a little making sure they lie straight and are not bent or curved. If they cannot be straightened they need to be trimmed off as also any roots which have grown through the bottom of the pot. Do NOT just fill up the hole and tramp it down with the feet or hands. This impacts the plant so firmly into the surrounding soil that it is almost like asking it to send its roots forth into cement. Instead work the soil gently with the hands and poke holes into it with the forefingers. Cover lightly to the base of the stem. Finally water gently but thoroughly twice - allowing the first watering to soak in well before the second.

This method would surely be equally appreciated by exotic plants. Whatever the plants, give them a chance to expand and grow, so that they will not have to fight so hard to exist. It seems to make sense that a good start is all-important to future growth. And thanks to Mr. Alan Gray for showing us how to do it.
