FUTURE TECHNOLOGY AND EMPLOYMENT

The idea that man must work to survive is an ancient one, for as far back as 400BC a man who did not work was viewed in a very bad light.

However, technological change has reached the stage where it offers man possibilities, undreamed of in the past, for the way in which life can be lived. For some, expectations will be raised, but for others the outlook is gloomy.

The opportunities given to man by technological development have gradually reduced the time spent, and the number of people required, to produce the necessities of life. Technology has freed many people from the necessity of actually toiling for their daily bread and butter. It has drastically reduced the number of people employed in these activities while the amount of food available has increased. An increasing number of people do not have to spend time producing the physical necessities of life, so they can develop other interests.

Some of our children could grow up never knowing what it is to be 'employed'. There needs to be tolerance and more flexibility in community attitudes towards work because in the future work may no longer be the focus of our culture. 'Employment' in the past has, often of necessity, been seen as necessary for the continual existence of the community, but it does not follow that this will always be so.

Perhaps the problem of the future will be not how to create more jobs, but how to live in a society in which the need of every individual to contribute to the community's production output is no longer the dominant factor in people's lives. We need to evaluate the changes taking place in society now so that those unavoidably affected by the emerging pressures are not alienated from society.

PRESS STATEMENT from Max Burr

The new Minister for Employment, Mr. Ian Macphree has been asked to reopen the Community Youth Support Scheme projects at Latrabe, Westbury and Fingal.

Wilmot MHR, Max Burr has writted to Mr. Macphree asking him to review the decision by the former Minister Mr. Brown that the projects should close.

In his letter Mr. Burr pointed out that it appeared that neither the Minister nor the State committee of the CYSS were aware of the difficulties faced by young unemployed people in rural areas. As they are miles away from the nearest Commonwealth Employment office, and there are no other support agencies, it is imperative that the young unemployed people be assisted by local community effort through CYSS.

As well as writing the Minister, Mr. Burr has also made the offer to discuss these closures personally, with Mr. Macphree at any time.

MUNICIPALITY OF FINGAL - INFORMATION TO RATEPAYERS - 1981/82

Services Council believes that ratepayers generally expect that services provided be improved, or at least be maintained at the present level, and it is on this understanding that rates have been set this year. To provide additional and improved services involving loan funds is becoming increasingly difficult with the high interest rates applicable to Council loan fund borrowing.

Please remember that Council as a whole welcomes constructive criticism and suggestions, these will receive full consideration and will be put into effect if considered advantageous and financially possible. The Warden, Councillors and Council Clerk will be pleased to discuss Council's policy with you on any particular aspect of local government in this area.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Dear Sir,

In days when criticism is frequently destructive, I write to both thank and congratulate you and those responsible for 14 years production of the Valley and East Coast Voice. Success and achievement are difficult to measure and must always be considered along with "need for" and "service rendered".

Your paper in presenting people with an opinion platform, news coverage and feature articles on politics, health, history, law and sport, etc. (not forgetting advertising) renders a service, fills a community need and thus contributes constructively to Valley and East Coast life.

I am certainly very happy to be a subscriber on the mailing list and to offer you sincere congratulations and best wishes for many more publications and birthdays.

Yours sincerely,
George A. Shaw, M.L.C.

Dear Sir,

Congratulations to Stephen Salter and the new Liberal Government for a job well done in gaining office at the State election. We look forward to a new and progressive Tasmania, under our new management.

Stephen, in fact all Candidates, worked hard with great determination to be elected.

The people should now give the State Government their full support to help them succeed with their four year program.

Paul Ashley.

THANK YOU

May I take this opportunity to thank all of those people who worked so hard for me during the campaign for the State election, and most especially my wife Yvonne and my family.

To the electors who gave me their vote, my sincere and heartfelt thank you.

It is my intention to work to the best of my ability for the betterment of Wilmot and Tasmania as a whole.

Thank you,
Stephen Salter.

THANK YOU

Multicap Entrant, Tonia Streets and her committee would like to thank everyone for their support at two street stalls, a cabaret at Silver Sands, Bicheno, and a bonfire, which were held recently.

Cont'd thank you

Thanks to Colleen Barnes for the donation of a goliwog for raffling, which was won by Hazel Hall of Fingal.

Two loads of wood which were raffled, were won by Mrs Nan Stuart and Mrs Colleen Barnes of St. Marys.

NEW PATIENT ASSISTANCE GROUP FORMED.

Towards the end of last year, Ellen-Jean Mitchell came to Tasmania with the hope that the climate would be kinder than Adelaide and Sydney and make living with Systemic Lupus Erythematosus easier for her.

Ellen-Jean had previously been a teacher and a keen traveller until the disease forced her to live a quieter life and become an invalid pensioner.

She had been a founding member of the Lupus Association of N.S.W. and now has got a similar association off the ground in Tasmania. Already there are groups meeting regularly in Hobart, Launceston, and the North-West coast with, to date, 60 members. At each meeting there is a talk by a member of the medical profession or a person who can give assistance in some way to patients, their families and also their friends, who very often do not understand the disease.

Systemic Lupus Erythematosus (SLE) is an inflammatory disease of blood vessels in the connective tissue. (Connective tissue binds the body's cells the way mortar binds bricks in a building.) SLE can change these tissues, producing abnormalities in the structure and function of such vital organs as the kidneys, heart, and brain.

Alteration may also occur in the skin, joints, blood, gastro-intestinal tract and the nervous system.

Moreover, Lupus turns the immune system against the body's own cells.

It is related to Rheumatoid Arthritis and Rheumatic Fever and also disorders of the connective tissue.

Its origin is unknown, its symptoms are extremely varied and often similar to symptoms of other diseases.

Common symptoms are generalized aching, weakness, malaise, fatigue, low-grade fever and chills. Arthritic-like pains, joint swelling and stiffness often develop. Many sufferers are extremely sensitive to sunlight and even minimum exposure to bright sun can trigger symptoms such as fever or generalized skin rash.

Although there is, so far, no cure, there are medications available to control attacks and generally adequate rest and freedom from emotional and physical stress are recommended to help keep it in check.

Meetings of the three groups are held regularly in the afternoon of the first Saturday of each month and any patients in the Fingal Valley may contact Ellen-Jean for more information at Lupus Association of Tasmania, Box 639, G.P.O. Launceston, 7250.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR THE NIGHT OUT

Dear Sir,

Referring to the Indoor Bowls Tournament on the 20th May, which was a great success. Starting at 9.30am, 32 Senior citizens played during the day, and I feel sure it will help put St.Marys Indoor Bowls on the map. I would like to thank everyone for their help and cooperation. Also a special thanks to the Lions Club of St.Marys for their support. Mr. Kevin Faulkner, in his position as President of the Lions Club, had the pleasure of presenting the trophies to the winning teams.

Thank you,
J. Lehner,
President,
Silver Threads,
Senior Citizens Club.

Editor's note:

Visiting teams came from as far away as Derby and Delorsaine, and as close as St.-Helens and Cornwall. Some travelled by private cars and some in bus-loads. I am sure all Senior Citizens who attended had a great time, despite the terrible weather.

~~~~~

The Lions Club held a dinner, progressive, Lots of members and friends attended. It started with drinks, at Ian's, at seven, where the punch was "doctored", By the Doctor in attendance.

Polly was there, (not making tea), She fell out the door, and crashed to her knee.

The second course served was at Peter and Lynn's.

We had soup at the supermarket, Where else would you think?

The entree was served at the Spilsbury's domain,

The scallops went down like suds down the drain.

The R.S.L. hall was the place to be, With main course and sweets and coffee and tea,

Celebrating continued way into the night, With the President singing, to all our delight.

Some say Crosby enjoyed the events, But I'm sorry to say, he fell, as he went. The music provided had all possessed, And the evening proved to be a success.

TASMANIA'S TOURIST ATTRACTIONS.

Still in Launceston, this week we visit the 1825 PENNY ROYAL CORNMILL AND PENNY ROYAL WINDMILL. Located alongside the Penny Royal Watermill Motel, Paterson St., Launceston.

These unique and fully working mills are two of the most fascinating tourist attractions in Australia. The original Cornmill was built in 1825 by Andrew Gatenby, His four sons and one convict at Barton near Cressy. A replica of the original Cornmill has now been built alongside the Penny Royal Watermill.

The seven storey Tower or Cap Windmill stands as a beacon to visitors to Launceston. It is situated in the beautiful landscaped grounds of the Penny Royal Complex. Breathtaking views of the Tamar Valley, Yacht Basin and the city can be seen from the Cap inspection gallery 90 feet above the Ground.

Both mills have fully restored and operating machinery giving a fascinating insight into the grinding of grain as in the days of old. The mills contain Wheelwright shops, Millwrights shop. Museum. Grain lofts. Millers Quarters, Threshing room, Blacksmiths shop, Wheel pits and extensive gift shops selling a wide range of local and English pottery, Welsh woollen goods, Copper and Brassware as well as various sized bags of stone-ground wholemeal flour.

Mills are open from 9.00am to 5.30pm daily.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 8, 19, 21, 31.

CANCER: June 22 - July 23

There is a lot of happiness indicated, and you and your family should have some delightful times. You will have more time to do the kind of work you enjoy, and your imagination should come up with some fresh ideas.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 3, 7, 9, 20.

LEO: July 24 - August 23

You seem to be constantly faced with making decisions on financial matters. Some Leo's may have to work a lot harder, but the end results will be worth the effort. You will find any job changes easy to cope with.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 7, 24, 33, 40.

VIRGO: August 24 - September 23

Stronger links within the family unit are developing, bringing warm rewards. There is a possibility you will hear of an engagement of a friend or acquaintance. If your road has been a little bumpy, smooth sailing now. LUCKY NUMBERS: 1, 8, 37, 38.

LIBRA: September 24 - October 23

June could be an important time for Librans. Those who haven't made big changes already, could be on the threshold of making them. Be a little patient when progress appears to be a trifle slow at times.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 4, 8, 11, 20.

SCORPIO: October 24 - November 22

Work commitments may sometimes keep you apart from your family, but in many ways the separation could actually bring you closer together. Your social life takes a down-hill turn, because of your limited leisure time.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 13, 17, 21, 24.

SAGITTARIUS: November 23 - December 21

Things you desire could be yours if you play your cards right. Travel could be a part of it. Relationships made recently may fall through. Don't waste your valuable time putting off making decisions.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 2, 7, 16, 17.

CAPRICORN: December 22 - January 20

One of your ambitions of the past, which had to take a back seat because of more important commitments, may soon be rediscovered. Take up the second chance if it happens. Take care of your health.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 5, 25, 29, 40.

AQUARIUS: January 21 - February 19

Life for you is at last looking up. For most Aquarians this will be your first experience of what promises to be an excellent period. Spread your wings and make new friends, but don't forget old friends.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 27, 28, 29, 30.

PISCES: February 20 - March 20

The key to your future rests in your hands. It is likely that advances or changes which are going to occur in your life, will involve some connection with a foreign person or place, and you should benefit from the association. LUCKY NUMBERS: 4, 23, 27, 31.

ARIES: March 21 - April 20

A major highlight in your life could occur quite soon. Emotions could be strongly influenced by the opposite sex. Keep a strict watch on all money matters as sudden expenses could deplete your savings.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 6, 8, 16, 17.

TAURUS: April 21 - May 21

Increased success in business seems imminent, either for you or your partner, and you will find yourself unusually busy. Use your initiative in making major decisions and it should pay off.

LUCKY NUMBERS: 13, 21, 34, 24.
