" THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS "

T'was the night before Christmas when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.
The stockings were hung
by the chimney with care,
In hopes that Saint Nicholas soon would be there.

The Children were nestled all snug
in their beds,
While visions of sugarplums
danced in their heads, And Mamma in her kerchief and I
in my cap,
Had just settled down for a long winter's nap.

When out on the lawn there arose
such a clatter,
I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash, Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new fallen snow,
Gave a lustre of midday to objects
below,
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer;
With a little old driver, so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be
St. Nick.

More rapid than eagles his coursers they came.
And he whistled and shouted, and called them by name:
"Now Dasher! now Dancer! now Prancer! and Vixen! on, Comet!
on, Cupid! on, Donner and Blitzen!
To the top of the porch, to the top of wall!
Now dash away, dash away, dash away all."

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly
When they meet with an obstacle,

mount to the sky,
So up to the house-tops the coursers they flew
With a sleigh full of toys, and Saint Nicholas, too.
And then in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.

As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound,
And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot.
A bundle of toys he had flung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack.

His eyes how they twinkled! his dimples how merry! His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry.
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
And the beard on his chin was as white as the snow.
The stump of his pipe he held tight
in his mouth,
And the smoke, it encircled his head
like a wreath.

He had a broad face and a little round belly
That shook, when he laughed, like a bowl full of jelly.
He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf.
And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself.

A wink of his eye, and a twist of his head,
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread;
He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,
And laying his finger aside of his nose
And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose
But I heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight,

"HAPPY CHRISTMAS TO ALL AND TO ALL A GOOD NIGHT".

ST. MARYS SPORTS CENTRE INC.GOLF NOTES

by 'Tee up'

Well this is the last edition of The Valley Voice for this year, so first of all from all golfers, the Season's best wishes to all the staff whom we owe so much to for giving us such a comprehensive report of the district's doings, in which we live. It's a grand paper. Keep up the good work, and thank you all.

The Golf Club on Saturday night, held their Annual Dinner and Trophy Night. The Swimming Pool Committee, who did the catering, are to be commended for the excellent dinner. One of the Pennant Team. I believe, fell down in the toilet, so a good time was the order of the night.

The chicken run every Thursday has already commenced and "Scotty" Jansen was the winner for the first run. You can play all day until 7.30 in the evening and only 9 holes. Congratulations to all the major trophy winners, as all these competitions were well represented during the year.

The Christmas ham and turkey was won by David Murfett 44pts, and Chris Hayes with 43 points.

Dear Editor,

I am finding my role as President both interesting and challenging. The responsibilities involved demand that I spend more time in Hobart and elsewhere and less in the electorate of Macquarie than in previous years. However I am still able to attend many functions and believe that my effectiveness as a representative of the Municipalities of Longford, Evandale, Fingal, Campbell Town, Ross, Oatlands, and Glamorgan, plus a portion of Launceston has not diminished.

If any group or organization would like to know more about the Tasmanian Parliament and the Legislative Council in particular I would be willing to speak and answer questions at a mutually arranged time and place.

In 1989, God willing, I will celebrate 21 years as Member for Macquarie and since 1986 I have been the senior Member of the Tasmanian Parliament. This gives me a kind of unique view of matters relative to the Tasmanian scene.

As Christmas approaches I am very grateful for the many friends I have made and for the advice, help and thoughtfulness of countless wonderful Tasmanian citizens. I am proud to be your elected Member and offer my best wishes to all trusting that the spirit of Christmas "Immanuel" (God with us) will impact positively in all our lives enabling us to be a less-divided, more tolerant, more forgiving and more generous society in 1989.

May the Peace and Joy of Christmas be with you all.

Yours sincerely,
GEORGE SHAW,
President.

POST OFFICE NEWS

The Staff at St. Marys Post Office would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy and safe New Year.

We have had a good year, especially with the beautification of the old P.O., now commonly known as the "Pink Palace" and also the installation of our Electronic Counter Service Computer, which enables us to handle all Commonwealth Savings Bank transactions e.g. keycards etc and also Hydro and Telecom accounts.

If you are pondering over what to buy your loved ones for Christmas come and have a look at our array of goods, e.g. The Complete Guide to Letter Writing, Stamp Presentation Packs and many more goodies. Santa has been kept busy answering all the letters that were posted in the posting box at the P.O., I am sure he will try to bring what has been requested.

Once again have a happy and safe festive season.

See you at the P.O.....P.M. Pete

STARDUST

By Mercury
Week commencing Dec. 23 1988.

CAPRICORN December 23 - Jan. 20

Now that the festive season is upon us be very careful not to go overboard with the cheer as you may spend Christmas recovering.
Best Days: 27, 5.

AQUARIUS January 21 - Feb. 19

This week seems to find you with a million and one things to be done but don't get too concerned you will make it in time.
Best Days: 24, 2.

PISCES February 20 - March 20

Relationships intensify. Nothing happens that is unemotional and anything goes!! Remember your first impression always seems to be correct.
Best Days: 23, 4.

ARIES March 21 - April 20

Don't go overboard with the Christmas presents this year as you may find yourself in the poor house. So just be a little bit careful with all those hard earned dollars.
Best Days: 26, 3.

TAURUS April 21 - May 20

Everything seems to be going just right for you at the present time, so ride that wave of life and have a great time over the holiday break.
Best Days: 25, 31.

GEMINI May 21 - June 21

Loved ones seem to be very understanding about a certain problem that you have been faced with, and they give you all the support that you could ever need.
Best Days: 28, 1.

CANCER June 22 - July 23

Now seems to be the time to take that well deserved rest, as you have been working too hard and you have worn yourself out.
Best Days: 29, 5.

LEO July 24 - August 23

Avoid using credit cards now as they are just an added expense to the already high list of expenses, so leave them well alone.
Best Days: 30, 4.

VIRGO August 24 - Sept. 23

Keep a close hold on your purse and keys, as you have a tendency to place them anywhere, with so many people shopping now you may never find them again.
Best Days: 26, 1.

LIBRA September 24 - Oct. 23

Your two major themes this week will be home and career. Both will require effort, but the payoff will be well worth it.
Best Days: 23, 31.

SCORPIO October 24 - Nov. 22

The festive season is really agreeing with you, especially with all those small children around you who you dearly love. So have a great time.
Best Days: 25, 1.

SAGITTARIUS November 23 - Dec. 22

Don't let certain people get you down now, as they say this is the season to be jolly, so take note and have a great Christmas.
Best Days: 29, 5.
