Holiday move for Centre

St Marys Online Access Centre is relocating during the school holidays to the School Annexe. (Go up the driveway between the Salvation Army Hall/Opportunity Shop and the Cenotaph - behind St Marys Community Hall, near the tennis courts)

The Online Access Centre will operate at the Annexe instead of the St Marys Library from December 15th 1998.

♦ MORE SPACE MORE COMPUTERS:

≈ Minimal printing costs

≈ Free internet access

≈ Free E-mail

♦ COMPUTER TRAINING AVAILABLE:

≈ Internet use

≈ Introduction to Microsoft

≈ Word Processing

≈ Spreadsheets

≈ Web Page Design

Relax in the Centre's laid-back internet cafe lounge.

Hot and cold drinks available.

Anyone wanting to supply paintings or craftworks for display and or sale, or anyone interested in being a volunteer supervisor, please get in touch with Co-ordinator Greg, at the Centre or by phoning 63722005.

Paper goes on holidays too!

This Valley Voice and the next on the 18th December, will be the last for 1998.

After a recess we will return in February 1999.

Local carts in front.

The day was a bit on the cool side and spectator and entrant numbers were down on previous years, but those who were there enjoyed themselves.

Once again the Gillies family was successful with their super carts as was the Rice family with their sopbox racers, with Lochie, Josh and Daniel all winning in their age class.

Sandra Gillies aged 6 had to be satisfied with 3rd place after a steering problem caused her cart to crash. Anthony and Matthew raced in the same Class with Anthony 1st and Matthew 2nd.

Geoffrey Gillies won the Open Class and would like to thank the St Marys Lions Club for once again putting on a great day.

On the next day the Gillies family went to the Beaconsfield Gold Festival to race where Anthony, Matthew and Geoffrey all won their individual Class events so overall they definitely had a good weekend.

Barclays comment

Editors note: Barclays Comment has been edited, portion of Comment is as follows.

Now to the dance. I still need some help on the night of the dance. Anyone who wishes to help please get in touch with me.

I do hope you come along and make it a night of fun. Make up a table and enjoy yourselves.

Wel, well Mr Keating is angry at all the 'untrue' things which have been said about him and his wife. Now he knows how other people feel when people like him do it to others!

People in glass houses should not throw stones.

Had a very nice day earlier this week. A coach full of joyful people, hosted by Joanne and Kerry, went to Mole Creek for the day and it was well worth while. The meal at Mole Creek Hotel was as good as you would get in the best of hotels anywhere. Apart from the wonder of the caves, the countryside through which we travelled was magnificent and very green.

Tasmania is really a beautiful place.

Congratulations to Andrew and Jackie on the birth of their daughter Melinda who arrived early Tuesday morning. Barclay.

Notice.

Due to the continuing nature and direction of 'Barclays Comment' and the associated 'Letters to the Editor' this paper will not be publishing any further correspondence dealing with this subject as it is considered to be in conflict with the standards of the paper, and also not considered to be in the best interest of co-operation and harmony within the community.

Letters to the Editor:

Writer's name, address and signature must accompany all letters when submitted to the paper but name can be withheld if requested. 'Anonymous letter' received can not be published, the writer can contact the Editor to give name and address and your letter can then be printed.

Extracts from the "Will you survive" pamphlet

Planning is the Key to Bushfire survival.

Your risk of losing life and property during a bushfire is affected by many factors- The location and accessibility of your property, the amount and type of surrounding vegetation, the condition and placement of buildings, the availability of water, and the physical capabilities of you and your family. Every home is different. That's why every family needs to develop an individual plan.

Consider these points:

- Safety of children, elderly or handicapped members of the household
- Your own physical and mental capability to cope with a major fire
- Whether or not your home can be safely defended (is fuel reduction work properly maintained, are water supplies sufficient)

The first and most important decision you must make is whether or not you plan to stay with your home. Homes occupied by able bodied residents are more likely to survive, because small outbreaks on the structure can be extinguished quickly by the occupants. (The fire service cant be everywhere at once.)

If you decide to evacuate, you must plan to do so early, well before the fires reach your vicinity. Lives are most often lost during unplanned last-minute evacuations.

Houses usually ignite from small sparks and embers collecting in crevices or blowing into long grass or dead leaves on or near the house structure. By maintaining your home carefully and removing dead, dry vegetation, you reduce the possibilities of your house igniting.

You can expect strong winds and heavy smoke causing reduced visibility, in addition the fire will generate a very loud noise which may be traumatic.

- Follow your plan.
- Stay with your home if that is the decision you have made
- Wear appropriate dress (Long sleeve shirt, long pants and sturdy leather foot wear)
- Inside, windows are a weak point. Remove curtains and all furniture away from windows. Fill the bath and all available water containers (sink, buckets, etc). Block crevices with wet towels.
- You will need to continually patrol the inside of your house during the peak period when the fire passes, to check for ignition points.
- Retreat indoors as the fire front approaches or when the radiant heat gets too great.
- Inspect as soon as possible after the front has passed for spot fires. (Inside and out)
- Patrol your home, it will need to be under constant surveillance for three to four hours after the fire has passed.
- Remember to drink plenty of fluids.

For more information contact your local fire brigade for a "Will You Survive" pamphlet.

1998 Leavers' Dinner

The 1998 leavers' dinner was held on Thursday November 26 at the Scamander Beach Hotel, and saw all the year 10 students at their finest for the evening. This year's dinner had a sea theme which was included in the invitations, room decorations and table decorations. Guests place cards were of handmade paper by Mrs Ruth Miller, individually decorated with tiny sea shells. Mrs Andrews, Miss Bryan and their helpers did a wonderful job with the decorations - right down to gold fish in bowls on the tables. Thank you to all who contributed to make this such a memorable evening for the grade 10 leavers.

GAMES REVIEW -

"FINAL FANTASY VII"

Playstation ; You play the character Cloud Strife a cold hearted mercenary who takes missions purely for monetary gain. An ex-soldier who joins a rebel gang to stop the Shinra Corp from draining the planet of its life forces. I've been playing the game for a couple of days and still I'm undecided whether it's worth finishing or not.

FFVII is a classic roll playing game right down to the old style of battle -each opponent takes a turn and battle moves are not in real time as with most newer games. Being 3 CD's long there are many video cut scenes and they tend to go on far too long, speech is limited to text bubbles (very disappointing) game play can be repetitive. On the positive side FFVII is artistically a beautiful game with rich backgrounds and a reasonable amount of freedom of movement. This game received absolute rave reviews in all playstation mags and so I'll persevere. ***

CD REVIEW - Ricky Martin "VUELVE" - Contains the hits such as "Cup of Life", "Maria" and "La Bomba". If you like those above you'll love this album. It's solid Latin rhythms and hardly an English word in sight. Ricky Martin is probably the flavour of the moment but will fade quickly from the charts, but for now "Vuelve" is a refreshing change from the usual. Production could have been better as a lot of the tracks sounds slightly muddy and don't accentuate the rhythm. ***

CD REVIEW - Catatonia - "INTERNATIONAL VELVET"

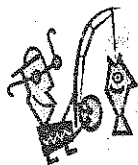

- Hailing from Wales in Great Britain

Catatonia have been getting some much deserved airplay with their singles "Mulder and Scully" and "Road Rage". The rest of the CD comprises of quirky pop songs and strange acoustic pieces the new single "I am the Mob" although not as clever as the previous two is also being picked up by radio. Good vocals, clever pop writing and reasonable musician-ship make "International Velvet" a good commercial CD. ****

VIDEO REVIEW - "PRIMARY COLOURS"

Starring John Travolta, Emma Thompson, Billy-bob Thornton and Kathy Bates. Travolta plays a very Clintonesque President of the USA, the video depicts the rise to fame of the President from his title of Senator of a small southern state to the night of his election. As usual with Travolta's later parts he is proving to be an actor of good substance far removed from his Saturday Night Fever days. Emma Thompson puts in a fine performance as his long suffering wife, Billy-Bob Thornton is excellent as the President's Mr fixit. When the heat comes down the President calls on an old reliable trouble-shooter and ex-secretary played by Kathy Bates, she is brilliant as the head kicking lesbian from the South. As an adult drama Primary Colours stands up well with a fine cast an interesting story pertinent to current events it's well worth a look. ****

Scamander Surf Angling Club 'We fish for fun'

PLENTY OF BITE

A most enjoyable day was experienced by some 35 anglers at our competition held on the Scamander River a fortnight ago. After overnight rain some anglers were hesitant to turn up but those who did certainly had a good days fishing. Some very good size bream were caught with most anglers taking a feed home

The winners were;

Open Men: Ferdie Richards with a 650 gram bream followed by a luckless Lohrey(who has run second at the last three competitions) who bagged a bream weighing 590 grams.

The Ladies Competition was won by Judy Blake with a bream weighing in at 490 grams and the Juniors won by Codie McDonald with a bream (that nearly pulled him in), weighing 430 grams.

I fished at Trout Road and I was not sure which was biting the best, the baby bream or the Mossies, so people beware, take your Aeroguard when going fishing.

Our next competition is Surf fishing at Scamander Barway followed by a BBQ at the Hotel so please bring your own tucker and we will enjoy a few Christmas refreshments.

This will be held on December the 12th -

2 - 6pm.

Good angling from President Pete.

CRICKET from 'Ole Snake Eyes'

St Marys met top team St Helens for their round 5 match.

Although bowling quite well St Marys were unable to hold onto their catches and allowed St Helens to total 230. After the early loss of Captain/Coach Wayne Gillies, fellow opener Mike Kringle was handling the strong St Helens pace attack of Whitney and Collier very well but unfortunately Roger Salter was run out for 14. A fine partnership between Kringle and Roger Towns took the score to 92 off 25 overs.

The Tigers lost Kringle and Towns in quick succession as they attempted to push on the runs. With Simon Lynch unable to bat because of injury the infamous St Marys tail collapsed with the Tigers all out for 102.

The best of the Tiger's bowlers were new recruit Kevin 'Piles' Wagner who took four wickets. He was well supported by Keith Gillies, Roger Salter, Michael Kringle and Roger Towns. Chief run scorers were Michael Kringle 45, Roger Towns 24 and Roger Salter 14.

Details of the game versus Central were not available and will be provided in the next issue.

In Under 16's St Marys fielded an inexperienced line-up for the match against Georges Bay. St Marys were bundled out for 41 with seven batsmen being bowled.

No St Marys player scored double figures.

In reply Georges Bay lost two wickets in scoring the required runs. Wicket takers were Alex Hortle and Sean Fletcher.

Round 3 match was postponed until this Wednesday night because of rain the previous Friday. St Helens batted first and scored a creditable 138/3 with two retirements. Josh Cooke and Tristan Clement were the wicket takers. In reply St Marys put in an improved batting display totalling 95. The best partnership being between Kyle Bean and T

Top scorers for St Marys were Tristan Clement. Kyle Bean 26 retired, Tristan Clement 18, Alex Hortle 13 n.o., and David Smith 12.

Sports Centre News

by Kackhander

It is good to be able to report a fairly successful tournament last weekend. Numbers were down a little in most events and the weather was a little iffy at times but the support by most was really good to see and good financially for the club.

Firstly thanks to all the workers, both on the course and in the administration and bar. Thanks Trevor, Jack Wines, Tristan, Sean, David, Dale, Josh and greenkeeper Glen Hazelwood firstly and of course Jim Haas on the fairways and rough.

Then to Jack Viney, Trev and Dale for organising trophies. To Norma, Bev, Dot, Mary and Janice for carrying out bar duties. Jack Viney Janice, May and Maryn for doing so well in the office and a special thanks to all the trophy donors big and small. It was a brilliant effort by you all and much appreciated. If I've forgotten anyone, I apologise.

Champions on the day

Leehanne King is the new St Marys Open Ladies Champion.

Dale Ridgers has retained the St Marys Open Mens Championship and Tristan Clement has taken out the Junior Championship.

Bowls

Firstly thanks to Rod Spilsbury, Smokey and Tony for the pennant green preparation. In the past fortnight the club has had two conclusive victories and is back in the four. A tough trip to Swansea this week though but you never know your luck as we have been close to victory there in recent years. Most of the singles first round has been completed and almost all the bowlers are involved, it's great to see.

Finally a reminder that technically after December 1st members are unfinancial but as usual a few weeks will be allowed to do your membership. Please note that after December 31st service may be doubtful to anybody then still unfinancial.

Anyway until next time, Good hitting and rolling.
