Students to paint the streets for Waterwatch

From one end of the East Coast to the other, groups of school children will be painting Waterwatch messages on town streets during Water week (15 - 21 October) to remind the community stormwater drains are part of our water catchments.

Teams of students and supervisors armed with stencils, paint, maps and safety gear will be working in town streets from St Helens to Orford.

Messages like Drains to the sea. Please keep it clean will appear beside the inlets to stormwater drains.

The idea is aimed at the litter and pollutants carried by runoff into stormwater drains into streams, dams, swamps, estuaries and the sea.

Seniors enjoy learning

Last week was Seniors Week statewide and the St Marys Online Centre joined in the activities.

An enjoyable morning tea was arranged for Seniors Week and everyone was certainly enjoying themselves.

Volunteers Mary and Ron have really got these Senior mornings going and all who attend these sessions are obviously having a good time, making new friends and at the same time learning and enjoying the world of computers.

The Tuesday Senior session has proved so popular that it has been extended to Thursday as well.

The St Marys Online Centre will be opening at 1pm on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for the summer months.

Friday and Saturday nights can be extended if needed.

Let us know if you would like some extended hours beyond those advertised. Even Sunday could be looked at if there is enough interest.

Please do let us know if you are interested in doing a little time as a volunteer at the Centre.

Hard work recognised

A group of people who have worked so hard and persevered when the 'going got tough' were rewarded when the Tasmania Lymphoedema Centre at St Marys was announced as the State winner of the National Australia Bank Community Link Award and won the wonderful sum of $5,000 for their efforts. The National announcement will be made in Melbourne on the 24th October. Jan Sparkes and Wendy Maher are being flown to Melbourne for the day and what wonderful 'icing on the cake' it would be if the National award could also be achieved.

There has been a lot of hard work put into the very successful first nine months of operation of the Lymphoedema Centre and they are very proud of everyone concerned and would like to say thankyou again.

The next meeting of the TLC committee was set down for October 24, however as Jan and Wendy will be in Melbourne on that day, the meeting will now be held on the following Tuesday - October 31.

Lets's hope there will be a reason to celebrate !

Last stop St Marys - I'm finally home, have been nearly two months on the roam, hard to believe that little me from St Marys has really done all this. It all started with learning more about Peru and some very challenging trekking to the sites of ancient cities. People who had not been there or who knew little about the country would say 'why ever would you want to go there?'. Those who had visited this far away country or had read or learnt much about South America were 'green with envy'.

About thirty hours after flying out of Melbourne in early August, I was getting into a bed in South America. After landing in Buenos Aires there had still been a five hour flight to Lima, the capital of Peru. We had flown over the snow capped peaks of the Andes and finally landed in a warm bustling city. It had been a very long, long trip but the hustle and bustle and must not forget to mention all the horn blowing of vehicles on the streets from the airport to the motel was enough to get you on your toes again. The excitement starts to build up as we arrive in this full speed ahead city traffic.

A few days in Lima was enough to assure me that this was a great country to visit, full of the history of ancient civilizations, a colourful and friendly race of people, the days warm, the food good and reasonably priced and the city safe to wander around in.

One day I was looking for a Post Office, so approached one of the 'City watchmen' who are always about, after being able to indicate what I wanted, as neither of us could speak the others language, he opened the door of the Police van for me to get in, then drove around a maze of streets and let me out on the steps of the main Post Office. How is that for service, the only problem was I had to find my way back to where I had come from.

A tour of Lima revealed it's contrasts, one moment grand ancient buildings, museums filled with gold and silver, mummies in remarkable condition (for their age!), beautiful pottery from around 400 BC that has been found as more and more excavations to the north and the south of Peru continue. Later in the day we witnessed the extreme poverty of the people living in absolute shanty conditions on the steep slopes outside the city. The extremes of the rich and the so very poor.

Things like plastic wrappers, cigarette butts, soap -suds and silt find their way into the stormwater drains and then our waterways where they cause harm.

Stenciling of stormwater drains has been done by students in the Dorset Council area with Dorset Waterwatch since 1997 and the good idea is being extended around the coast as a regional initiative by Coastlink, the regional coastal and marine management group. In the Glamorgan/Spring Bay area the activity is one of the first activities of Mel Kelly as Glamorgan/Spring Bay Council's new Waterwatch Coordinator.

Glamorgan/Spring Bay Councillor Bill Bailey, who represents the Council on Coastlink says 'we should not forget, what goes down the gutter and into the stormwater drains ends up in the sea and streams'. Break O'Day Mayor Robert Legge, also a Council representative on Coastlink, agrees, 'the streets of St Marys are part of the South Esk Catchment and people take irrigation and drinking water from the Catchment all the way down to the Tamar'.

Residents and drivers of cars are asked to watch out for the teams of students from their local schools during October.

People interested in getting involved or wanting further information can contact Waterwatch coordinators at the Dorset and Glamorgan/Spring Bay Council offices and Coastlink's Project Officer at Break O'Day Council's St Helens office 6376 1281

I was with a group who was spending four weeks in South America visiting Lima, a jungle region, trekking the Inca trail, going out to Lake Titicaca - the floating reed islands, a short time in La Paz - Bolivia and then Buenos Aires - Argentina.

I was told that I could have 'leave of absence' from this paper on the condition that I write some articles when I return. Next issue will be a little about life along one of the tributaries of the Amazon, in a thatched roof bungalow, watching fireflies from the verandah and 'Stinky the Pig'.

A travellers tale - Audrey.

ST.MARYS DOCTOR UPDATE

Contact has been received from 2 potential Locums and this has been referred to Tas GP Division. Advice received from the Division is that the Doctors do not have sufficient GP experience and are best suited to a Group Practice. This advice is being further discussed with the Division to see if a solution can be found.

Advertising is to commence in The Australian Newspaper this weekend and Internet advertisements are also being established.

The Council at its meeting on 28th September 2000 agreed to negotiate on the matter of providing assistance to prospective GPs to set up in St.Marys. The amount and form of assistance was left in the hands of the General Manager.

The Department of Health and Human Services is assisting in preparing a detailed Information Package on the GP opportunity at St.Marys to assist in enticing prospective GPs.

EAST COAST & FINGAL VALLEY

Chance to help others

The East Coast Counselling Service has launched a Christmas Appeal for residents of the communities it services, from Coles Bay in the south, to Pyengana in the north and the Fingal Valley.

This appeal has been launched due to the retirement of the Salvation Army's Captain Reg and Eve Tolputt, and our concern that those facing financial hardship will find Christmas that much more difficult without the Salvos presence this Christmas.

The Counselling Service is staffed by social workers Helen Preston 6376 2385 and Thom Ryan 6376 1545, and we wish to advise that donations of cash, food or toys can be left at the St Helens Neighbourhood House or at the following places:

St Marys : St Marys Supermarket

St Marys Top Shop

Fingal: Fingal Neighbourhood House

Fingal Post Office

Bicheno: The Log Cabin Store

Individuals or families requesting assistance for Christmas either for themselves or others can contact either Thom or Helen and can be assured of the strictest confidentiality.

All donations of cash, food and toys will be directed toward those in need, and we wish to assure the community that any costs associated with any aspect of the appeal will be met by the Counselling Service.

Welcome home Audrey

Well I got so carried away that I didn't realise last fortnight's issue of the Valley Voice was my last one! Julie was also away and unable to do her pages so Wendy Maher and Ron helped out. The GREMLINS were about though and we had a lot of pasting and such. These things always happen at the last minute and worst possible time.

I want to say thanks to Audrey again for leaving me with her sections, thanks also to Ron and Bettie Sumner for their help and understanding when I got a bit 'frazzled' with things not going to plan!

Finally thanks to you all for the good feed back on the paper, I have enjoyed it.

Grassy Bottom Regional Arts - update

It is starting to look like November 11 and 12 is going to be one fun weekend! As well as markets, a Cake Bake competition and Maypole dancing, Grassy Bottom is bringing out Life Be In It and their 'Funworks' equipment - a giant earthball, parachute, games, etc. There will also be puppets, face painting, clowns, jugglers, an exhibition of local art, craft, design and interesting objects and an afternoon of open gardens to give the people who love their gardens a chance to show them off and have them appreciated by fellow garden lovers. There is going to be a bush dance with the Bottom Pub Ceilidh Band on the Saturday evening, and then on the Sunday there is going to be a community concert and a sausage sizzle! There is more in the pipeline, so keep your eye out for more details.

Grassy Bottom Regional Arts is very small and we need your involvement to make things really work. Our main purpose is to create opportunities for people to showcase their skills and talents and show off our local communities - and having fun in the process!

There are heaps of ways to be involved in Grassy Bottom without having to attend meetings, so if you'd like to have a market stall, enter a cake in the Cake Bake (prizes for Taste and Presentation), dance around the maypole, open your garden, perform at the concert, display your art (or anything you have that you think other people would like to see) or be involved in any other aspect of the festival, we'd love to hear from you!

One last thing, we need some tents for the festival, the sort you can walk into without having to crawl on your knees, so if you have one that we can borrow, or know where we can get any, please let us know.

Stephen Gordon
For Councillor and Mayor

"As someone who worked with Stephen Salter professionally for some time I have no hesitation in voicing my support for his decision to stand for the position of councillor and Mayor of Break O'Day Council. I believe Stephen to be the 'fairest minded' person I know and certainly can testify to his dedication, professionalism and enthusiasm.

Stephen has great understanding of the procedures and responsibilities of local government, he knows his way around political circles, which is a huge benefit when you are trying to get things done.

Stephen has the ability to see the big picture, and his obvious dedication and belief in the entire Break O'Day region is what is needed in such a large and sometimes disjointed municipality."

Again to outdoor bowls and we really need to have all the names for the singles and pairs Club Championships up in the near future. Each club must have their winners for the East Coast Finals in plenty of time, so could everyone please try and organise their names as soon as possible so the draw can be done.

The indoor bowls singles and pairs is being played at the moment and we ask that the games be played or resolved as quickly as possible. It is up to you and your opponent to organise a date and time to get the game in.

The round competition dates on the score sheets will need to be a little more flexible due to our late start and unavailability of the mat, so if you can add on 1 week to those dates it will be okay and give enough time.

Entry fee is $1 per player per event.

Hopefully in the next week or two a new captain and vice captain will be appointed. There has been some great ideas to help promote golf, coming from the members and maybe these can be implemented to encourage a few more golfers to play, especially over the summer.

Chicken runs again

Just a reminder to all that the Friday night Golf Chicken Runs have just recommenced, so if you want a very enjoyable and fun couple of hours from about 5pm you are welcome to come along.

Subscriptions are now due

A reminder that the subscriptions are now due and payable and all members should have invoices to let them know what they are up for. Remember December 1 is the cut off, so if it can be paid by then it would be great.

It is great to hear that Adam Fletcher is doing well in his new job at Mowbray Golf Club. Keep it up Adam.

Finally to the Valley Voice, thanks Wendy for unravelling my scribble each fortnight while Audrey has been away, we appreciated it and of course, welcome back Audrey. We hope you had a terrific time over the past two months - look out here comes the scribble again.

(Not a problem Rodney !)

Anyway until next time,
good hitting and rolling.

Well done Luke

On the football scene in recent weeks, Luke Faulkner has just completed his second season with the Tassie Mariners and capped off a successful year by taking out the 'Most Consistent' award at the Mariner's Annual Presentation night.

Prior to that Luke had just returned from the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra after an intensive training camp which he enjoyed immensely, all leading up to the 2000 AFL Draft.

Physical fitness and coordination testing was the main focus of the three day camp and talented footballers attended from all over Australia. Personnel interviews also played a part in the process.

Luke was lucky enough to be interviewed by seven of the AFL clubs, and now he anxiously awaits the first draft which will be held on October 29, in the hope of fulfilling his ambition to play AFL football.

We wish Luke all the best for the draft and also for his future in football.

Seafood success

A big thankyou to all those involved with the recent Seafood Night and to the nearly 70 patrons and club members who came along on the night for the sumptuous feast. Special thanks to Dale Ridgers who conceived the idea and provided most of the actual tucker. Also to Chris, Genevieve, Paul, Kylie and Gloria Ward who prepared and laid it all out. These nights have been a real success and plans are already in the wind for more on a food theme, watch out as time goes by.

Well done to our bowls team who have kicked off the season with an unexpected but welcome victory in the pennant. Although we only had one winning rink (Tony Blake's mob) it was pleasing indeed to see that every rink was super competitive and 4 shots was as far away as anyone was, which bodes well for the season. Hopefully our side will be only strengthened as the year progresses.
