

The Valley and East Coast Voice

Volume 34 Issue 3

Friday 9 June 2000 50cents

'Solstice' : Either winter or summer, about 21st June or 22nd December, a point reached when the sun is furthest from the equator.'

The Grassy Bottom Regional Arts will be presenting a 'Winter Solstice Fire Extravaganza' on Wednesday 21st June at sunset.

In the Main Street of St Marys there will be music, story telling, a lantern parade, fire dancing and a spectacular fire dragon puppet.

Leading up to the solstice celebration, workshops will be held during the school holidays where children will join in the lantern making then be able to take part in the parade on the night.

The clear crisp nights that we are having will be ideal for fire dancing and the lanterns!

The evening is free to all, and the Grassy Bottom Regional Arts invite you to join in and celebrate.

School holidays ideal for exploring

This region has many wonderful Forest Reserves all within reach of most of us and each can be easily incorporated in a days outing.

Evercreech Reserve with the giant white gums is probably the best known, with excellent BBQ facilities and the well defined forest walks, it is always a favourite for families.

Other spots to visit are Griffen Park, Mt Puzzler, Mathinna Falls, Miami Park, Scamander River Reserve and Lower Marsh Creek.

For anyone who is unsure of how to get there, information on these forest reserves can be obtained from the Forestry Centre at Fingal.

Bo comes to town

Born in Arkansas, a young man grew up learning to play the guitar and soon became well known in the Blues, Rock and Country music areas. During his career he has received much praise from musicians around America and Australia.

Bo Jenkins now lives in Australia and will soon be touring Tasmania.

Bo has a very distinctive style of playing as a result of his unusual approach to the guitar, he is left handed and with strings in reverse order, Bo has developed some unique techniques.

St Marys will be fortunate indeed to have Bo Jenkins join in the Winter Solstice celebrations in the town on the night of Wednesday 21st June.

Bo Jenkins will be at Todd's Hall at 7.30pm on that night for what must surely be an evening not to be missed.

Phone 6372 2066 for bookings.

Community Band Update

The Community Band is coming up for it's first birthday soon and the music is going along very well. We are currently working on some 'old time' waltzes as well as rehearsing 'The Blues', to play at the Winter Solstice Concert.

It's not too late to join up if you'd like to get involved. We do have a few instruments looking for players and playing in a band is a great way to learn—maybe something you'd like to consider?

Rehearsals are held on Tuesdays at Todd's Hall from 7.30 till 9.00pm

Follow - up to Public Challenge

I refer to my Public Challenge to Mr R. Legge and Mr John Brown and Works Manager Mr M. Johns in Volume 33 Issue 22 published on Friday 14 th April 2000.

As this Challenge has NOT been taken up by the three gentlemen named above, we the general public can understand from this that the chemical GLYPHOSATE is most dangerous to human health and more than damaging to our gardens, and they were/are not prepared to take the risk of using it on themselves, yet it is OK for the general public to be so sprayed.

I issue an invitation to all who are most interested in having GLYPHOSATE banned from use in residential areas to contact me on 6372 2418, so that a meeting can be called at a time, date and place to be advertised in this paper, according to interest shown.

The Floating Paper Clip

Some people brought some tank water from home and we put it in a beaker. Then we tore off a bit of kitchen paper and put the paper clip on top. When the paper got soggy and heavy, it sank and the paper clip floated. The water surface tension on the top makes the paper clip float.

Robbie McDonald

Science

Task: Catch and lift an ice cube without tying a knot or touching the cube.

You will need - salt
- ice cubes
- thick thread

Method:

1. Soak thread in water and lay it on top of ice cube
2. Sprinkle some salt along the thread. Wait for about 30 seconds
3. Lift the thread.

OBSERVATION AND EXPLANATION

When you lift up the thread the ice cube was stuck to it for a few minutes.

WHY?

When you sprinkle the salt on the cube it melted the surface of the ice. The salt mixed into the water. The coldness of the ice cube made the salty water freeze again, holding the thread in place.

One very observant and also much read local passed on these observations.

The Planning Scheme

The Break O'Day Planning Scheme 1996 contains a Residential Development Code, intended to "provide guidelines to persons wishing to undertake residential development within the Scheme Area".

Council "must refuse a development that does not comply with Table 19.1" which states (page 153) that "to ensure all dwellings have adequate access to sunlight... residential buildings shall contain eaves, pergolas or similar structure to screen windows in north facing walls from direct sunlight between 10.00am and 3.00pm EST on 21st December".

( Surely they can't be serious!! )

The Apostrophes of St Mary at St Marys

Should the eyes of the passerby be cast heavenward as he or she approaches the hotel at the intersection of Storey St and Main St the name that meets the eye on the pediment of the building proudly proclaims "St Mary's Hotel".

A detailed examination of the owners and licencees of the hotel since 1860 reveals no record of the hotel ever having been owned by a being called St Mary.

Regretably beatification of the local watering hole cannot justifiably be claimed, thus removing a potential lure to the faithful to make annual pilgrimage to the town. The name, however, could serve as a very pertinent local object lesson to the English Department at the High School of the wondrous ways of the moving apostrophe.

After a five year stint as East Coast Champions of A Grade pennant, St Marys cannot take out this years flag after losses to Bicheno and St Helens, but everyone is justifiably proud of the record and the successes are unlikely to be matched.

After inevitably seeing our top juniors Adam Fletcher, Sean Fletcher and Tristan Clement take the next step in their golf careers, the big improvement of Bicheno as a talented team as well as key players unavailable at times, the team has struggled a little to win away games that are needed to do well.

Team Captain John Miles has steered the side to victories in 1998 and 1999 and has done a marvellous job again this year and should feel content with his efforts. Thanks John.

We still have four games to go and three of them are at home. The boys incredible record (to date 14 complete years of undefeated results at St Marys) can be stretched to 15 years provided those three victories come against Freycinet, Scamander and Bicheno.

A Reserve still have a chance but need a little luck to retain the 1999 flag.

A big congratulations to Mark Carrick in his first year of pennant. Mark has played some excellent golf to win four of his five games to date, which is outstanding.

It is also great to see John McDonald play the past two weeks and win handsomely. John was and still is a fantastic player and matchplay is his strength. Thanks John.

Paul Davern likewise is a welcome return to the side. Hopefully both teams can retain the players for 2001 to push again for the flags.

Ladies in Black and White

In the Ladies pennant it looks certain that the girls will win this years flag but St Marys White faced a challenge from St Marys Black with a game to go. It's tremendous to see both sides do so well this year. Malahide inflicted a defeat on the team and these Fingal ladies are very tough to beat indeed.

At the time of writing, I'm not sure what the final tally was, but it looks like Ladies pennant is going strong on the Coast and Valley.

Attendances for the Newman and Gill Memorial Trophies were quite good.

Congratulations to Mick Sharman and Raz McDonald for their respective victories.

Also to Steven Dawson and Dale Ridgers for donating trophies for the Gill trophy on behalf of the family this year. I'm sure Geoff and Ruth would have approved.

Thanks to Glenn McDonald and Leigh Spilsbury on winning an enjoyable Trivia Night last Friday.

I believe everyone really enjoyed it even if the VCR had other ideas for a while !!

Hopefully the next one will have more teams.

Finally a notice to all indoor bowlers.

We need to hold a bowls night soon so if anyone is interested Wednesday June 14, we will run a practice night between 7 - 9 pm for those who want to play.

Please try and come along even if it is only for a half hour. You will be very welcome.

There are plenty of events coming up in the next few weeks so keep an eye on the notices.

Anyway until next time good hitting and rolling.

Coming Events

Last week, a well earned rest with the bye. A small reprieve in the middle of the season.

Whoever said they did not like the idea of a bye obviously is not on the committee !!

Evandale was the task the previous week and the Under 16's played St Pats Gold who were reportedly undermanned due to other commitments, but looked strong all the same.

First of all to the Seniors, a good chance to cement our place in the five against an improving outfit, we were off to a flying start with a six goal to one, first term. Although threatening to blow the game apart in the second term, the Evandale boys rallied and traded goal for goal for most of the game, the margin at the end, the same as quarter time, 30 points and a really hard slog for most of the match.

Best Players were Salty, Bucky, Mozza, Coke and Boof. St Pats at home again this week and again a win is a must, we are looking for a top three finish and will be strengthened by the return of Gibbo, Brooksy and Sticky.

The Reserves looked totally outclassed at the start of the game as Evandale kicked seven easy goals in the first term to one. You could have been forgiven for thinking that a complete drubbing was on the cards, but to the teams credit they fought their way back into the match. Whilst we did not threaten to win the game, the 32 point loss a testimony to how we fought back. Once again a frustration for Dacka, as the side has not been thrashed since our first outing, one or two kicks the margin in most games. Best players were Jerome, Cooky, Matty and Broady. The Under 16/s had an even tussle all day with their early lead of four goals setting up a win. Adam Gillies putting in his best game for some time in a best on ground performance as he and Mince turned back many attacking moves.

The defence the key to the game, as we did not kick a big score but allowed the opposition even fewer chances in front of goal. Adam Viney up forward with 3 goals also a key to the game, a good even performance before a couple of weeks off.

To all Tigers best of luck this week.
