Volume 38 No. 16 Est. 1968

Thursday December 8, 2005 50 cents

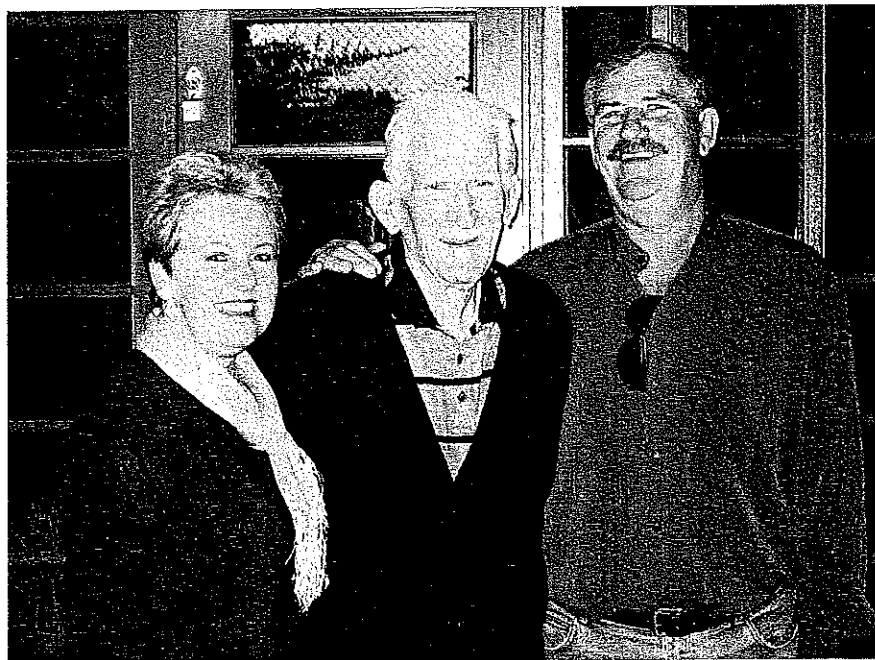

Huge surprise for Leith!

Leith Gatty, pictured right, centre, convalescing in Adelaide after heart surgery and major illness, recently received visitors from home!

Charlie and Bob Hersey dropped in on their way to Western Australia. It was a real treat to have them visit and catch up first hand on the home town news.

Leith is looking forward to returning to St Marys in December.

Amanda Rossi.

A little bit of Heritage by Jim Haas

When we reminisce on how our Forefathers tunneled into the Mt. Nicholas Range with only a pick, shovel and a stick of dynamite, we remember a breed of brave men all of whom knew only hard physical work with daylight in winter being only a weekend luxury.

But this unique style of coalmining began to change in 1950 when Cornwall Coal Co. purchased one of the first five Joy Continuous Miners to come to Australia from the United States at a cost of 50,000 pounds; a huge amount at that time.

Ding Mc Geachie, the mine superintendent at the time said: "If we are to compete with the continuing threat of cheaper oil, the whole structure of mining as we know it has to change and mechanisation with machines such as these is our only hope of survival."

The next twenty years proved him right, as the coal industry almost folded in the 1960s.

But in 1950 when the new pre-historic looking machine arrived at Cornwall, the industry was still going strong and despite fears amongst the miners that this steel monster was going to do away with jobs, the mammoth task of taking the machine into the Snake Gully coal seam was achieved, and although pick and shovel contract miners were still used, the Joy Continuous Miner became the major coal producer at Cornwall for the remainder of the Snake Gully seam's life.

Whilst its system of cutting and loading the coal was similar to the modern continuous miners, unlike today's method of transporting the coal from coal face to conveyor belt with electrically powered shuttle cars, Cornwall mine was still bringing the coal to the surface by endless rope pulling small rail trucks called skips. As a result, rails had to be kept laid right up to the machine to allow it to load the coal into the skips, where pit ponies were still used to pull the skips to where they could be coupled to the endless rope which then pulled them to the surface.

But then in February 1964, the decision was made to close Cornwall and move all operations to the more efficient Duncan Mine at Fingal and the Joy Miner, which was now buried some three kilometers under the Mt. Nicholas Range, was a valuable item; she was the last one left of the five originals brought to Australia; the others had either been buried in rock falls or dismantled for spare parts.

Consequently, a mainland company bought the machine, to be transported to Sydney as part of a mining museum. But the question of how to get the machine out from under the mountain proved quite a head ache. However, it was finally decided that the shortest route was to dig her way five hundred metres to the south which would bring her out roughly where Blackwood Colliery is today.

A crew of four men was retained at Cornwall for the task and long time mine deputy, Lindsey Haas, was put in charge of the operation.

It was a tedious operation. As the Miner made her path, the road behind had to be kept clear, so the coal had to be taken back in skips and dumped in every nook and cranny of the mine. But after a couple of months her big teeth finally hit daylight and the great monster emerged from under the mountain into the rain forest, her well worn cutting head feeling the rays of sunlight after fourteen years of darkness.

But the battered and worn old machine had served her time. Like all old miners her days of darkness, coal dust and cursing men driving her to the limits were over; she could relax now in the knowledge that she would be restored, painted, face lifted and be a showpiece for generations to come.

But we too should never forget the old "Dinosaur", because the cost efficiency of mechanisation saved the industry from the cheap oil of the sixties, and has kept the coalmining viable ever since.

Otherwise, it too, would only be a relic like the Joy Miner.

Lindsey Haas admires the 'Joy Miner', after she had dug her way out of the mountain at Cornwall.

St Marys Police report

As the Christmas New Year period is approaching rapidly it is probably time for a gentle reminder of safety on the roads.

This is especially so in this region as there will be a high usage of traffic using the highways to reach holiday resorts and destinations. This increased traffic flow also sees a higher police profile and presence on the roadways, not only by local police, but specialist traffic police from Launceston.

Police over the holiday periods will be concentrating on the non-compliance of drivers and passengers not wearing seat belts, speeding and drink driving. These three factors feature in fatal and serious crashes and all attempts will be made to prevent fatal and serious crashes in our area.

Several Random Breath Testing Operations conducted in our town over the past weeks have caught motorists driving whilst disqualified and exceeding 0.05%. What is the motto? "DRINK DRIVE – BLOODY IDIOT"

Why lose your licence for a few beers. Have a designated driver or someone pick you up. In a country area a licence is essential with no public transport, so think before you get behind the wheel.

Also for information, is a new law brought in about 2 months ago concerning drinking alcohol on the streets. If a person is consuming alcohol or has an open container of alcohol on a public street you can be issued with a $100 on the spot fine. Several have been warned in the past week, so keep the drinking indoors.

NOTE:-

The police station at St Marys will be closed from 12mid on Friday the 23rd December till the 28th December 2005. Please ensure that your licence or registration is paid up prior to the 23rd, if it is due to expire over these dates. Any other matters will be dealt with on the Police 000.

STATION CLOSED & PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

Sir,

The "Vision Statement" of the Break O' Day Council refers to the community "participating in decision making", and to "promoting communication wherever possible". While Councillors represent all residents in the Municipality, those residents who live in areas in which no Councillor lives in the immediate vicinity may feel that they have no convenient opportunity for face to face discussion with a Councillor.

As one way of overcoming this problem, I shall be a "Councillor in Attendance" at the Neighbourhood House at Fingal every Tuesday, from 13th December, between 10-12, available to receive any concerns, ideas, problems or suggestions from residents, about matters which are relevant to Council operations or policies.

I can also be contacted by telephone (6372 2647), but personal contact is often the preferred option. I hope that the above arrangement may be helpful to those who live in Fingal, Mathinna, Mangana and surrounding properties.

Residents are reminded that Ordinary Council Meetings (on the second Monday of the month at the Council Chambers at St Helens) now start at 5.00pm

Still Searching.....

The Bohemian Bards Night at the Pub.

At St Marys Hotel on Dec 17th at 8pm.

Maybe you have a song to sing,
Or a funny tale you wish to bring,
Possibly some poems you long to orate,
Or a political theory you need to translate.
Perchance a tune you invented yourself,
Or a witty ditty picked from the shelf.
Prefer you may to sit and watch,
While quietly sipping on a scotch,
You're all invited, whatever your thing,
Don't miss out, friends please bring,
For the Bards night out at the Pub
With a bit of good cheer, chug chug a lug,
On Saturday Night, starting at eight,
It's Bards miked up, I just can't wait!

PS: Bardies will need to be accompanied by an adult.

Twilight Netball Competition

So that teams can be organised etc. would everyone interested in participating in the twilight netball competition please attend at the outside netball courts at the school at 6.00pm on Tuesday 13 December.

Once teams have been finalised we will try and run a "lightning" tournament on that evening where new players can get a feel for the rules and a fixture for subsequent weeks can be drawn up.

It appears that a mixed competition is the most popular so we might just have a junior (say under 13) "scratch competition" on the nominated evening and the balance of teams nominating will participate in the one "mixed" competition. We can finalise these details when we know how many players/teams are interested.

If you know someone who wants to play that won't be able to attend, please let us know on the night so that we can slot them into a team. Seven players take the court at a time so this is the minimum number required to make up a team.

Anyone interested in umpiring, scoring etc. is also welcome to come along.

AN OPEN INVITATION

On Friday, December 16th at 7.30pm JAM (Jesus And Me) will be hosting an end of year celebration.

The Salvation Army Band from Launceston Corps will welcome guests sharing wonderful music and friendship.

Everyone is welcome!

Please consider sharing the night with JAM in its new home? The JAMmers will be your hosts for both the entertainment and supper.

ST MARYS Idle

Another wonderful evening!

St Marys 'Idle' running for the second consecutive year saw some extraordinary performances in front of a packed school hall on Tuesday Night. New students Samantha Paterson and Eliza Payne, (both Grade 6 and trained by Mr LeFevre) took out three of the five awards.

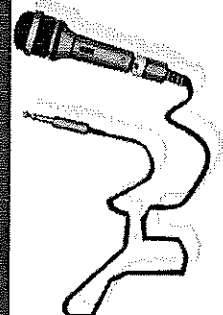

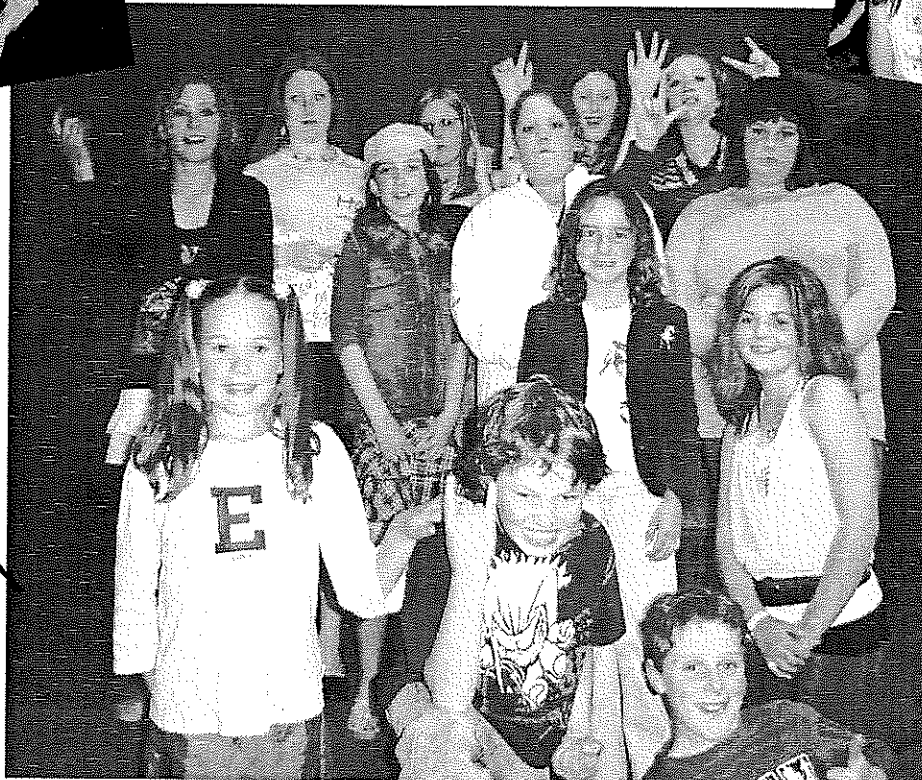

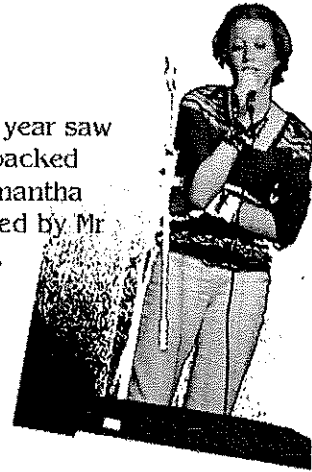

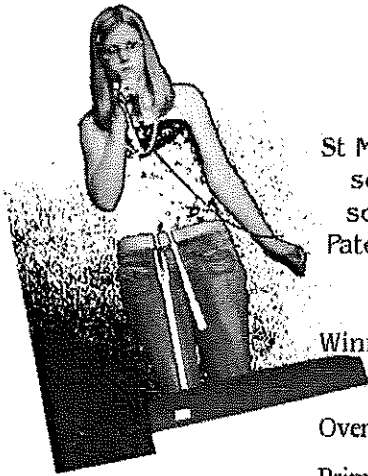

Winners as follows:

Overall -	Samantha Paterson
Primary winner	Samantha Paterson
Primary runner-up	Eliza Payne
Secondary Winner	Ruby Wallace
Secondary runner-up	Emily Brown
Special "Robbie Williams" Award	Liam Norton

These nights would not happen without the support of parents and students. Special thanks to Terese Tanner, Justin Emmerton, Matt Bennell and the Judges - Bruce Cornelius, Mrs Marshall and Megan Gillard.

Prizes were kindly donated by the 'Swell Café' - Bicheno, Bicheno Newsagency and East Coast Surf.

Nic Wardlaw.

The Say, by Cagerattler

"Don't pass pollied on our passes"

There's no need for us to go on about our recent rain (apparently almost the equivalent has fallen in the past three months, that usually drops for a whole year) but one crucial outcome of this rain is a glaring one.

That is our passes. As we all know there has been a few slips on the St Marys Pass since the rain. At the moment one section in particular is being feverishly worked on, to get it ready for the influx of Christmas tourists, who are critical to the ongoing success of the area.

The Elephant Pass to a lesser extent has been affected by the rain, but perhaps it's only a matter of time, given it's generally tighter, narrower carriageway, that a landslip will occur there too.

It's perhaps easy to say that our politicians should prioritise these passes as important concerns for road maintenance, with many, many other places in Tasmania needing attention also. But can you imagine the detrimental effects a similar landslip would have on our area, if it occurred a month later than it did this time?

It's highly unlikely that we would again get rain like that, concentrated into such a tight time space, but let's hope our Roads and Transport officials are seriously considering some fairly important upgrades and strengthening, to our two essential passes in the coming years.

We need them to be reliable routes, but I suppose if you put it into perspective, they haven't done a bad job to date, considering they are basically unchanged since construction, probably 150-160 years ago. Maybe a bit wider and a few corners different, that's all.

Imagine what it must have been like to build by hand in those days. Incredible really, isn't it?

What do you think?

Everything I need to know about life, I learned from Noah's Ark

- One: Don't miss the boat.
- Two: Remember that we are all in the same boat.
- Three: Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark.
- Four: Stay fit. When you are 600 years old, some one may ask you to do something really big.
- Five: Don't listen to critics; just get on with the job that needs to be done.
- Six: Build your future on high ground.
- Seven: For safety's sake, travel in pairs.
- Eight: Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board with the cheetahs.
- Nine: When you're stressed, float a while.
- Ten: Remember, the Ark was built by amateurs, the Titanic by professionals.
- Eleven: No matter the storm, when you are with God, there is always a rainbow waiting.

St Marys Sports Centre news

Cont'd

One of the features of the club this year has been the interest in membership again. Many enquiry's have led to us either getting or regaining memberships which have helped the cash flow of the club. Keep them coming, and if you're at all interested in taking out a membership just contact the club or a committee member. They will help you.

It's hoped that in the coming weeks. Our spit roast will be followed up by a seafood night, a trivia night, maybe a cricket match, a night of music, some bowls under lights, and so on.

New members from now until June 30th will only be due for pro-rata (proportional) subscriptions. It's a great time to come on board.

Well done to our darts team who are second on the ladder. Thank you to the St Marys Hotel team for agreeing to play last week's game on Saturday, to allow us to get out dinner night in. It was much appreciated.

Anyway, until next time
Good hitting and rolling.

THANK YOU

I WOULD LIKE TO THANK EVERYONE FOR THEIR KIND THOUGHTS AND HELP DURING MY RECENT TIME IN HOBART, LAUNCESTON AND ST MARYS HOSPITALS.

I WAS OVERWHELMED BY THE AMOUNT OF CARDS, FLOWERS AND GOOD WISHES THAT I RECEIVED, AND THE HELP THAT PEOPLE GAVE MY WIFE AROUND THE HOME. MY SINCERE THANKS TO EVERYONE.

THERE ARE TOO MANY OF YOU OUT THERE TO NAME, BUT YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE, AND I WANT YOU ALL TO KNOW THAT I AM VERY GRATEFUL FOR YOUR HELP, AND THAT IT WAS GREATLY APPRECIATED.

ONCE AGAIN, THANK YOU ALL.

PETE & FRAN WILLIAMS.

P.S. THE NURSES AT THE ST MARYS HOSPITAL ARE MARVELLOUS! AND DR SINGH.

St Marys Sports Centre news by Kackhander

Bl- - - dy rain! Here we go again. Not only did we not play another home bowls pennant game against Swansea due to the unavailability of the green after the rain, but we lost the Veteran's Ladies Day, and it almost cost us the Scamaryhide Cup as well.

Almost being the operative word. Thanks to some marvellous work from the greenkeeper, Craig Mitchell, and Jim Turner, Trevor Viney, Roger and Kodie Donald, and Les, our voluntary worker, they somehow managed to get the course up enough to at least let us get the Scamaryhide Cup played. Thanks fellas. What a great effort. It turned out to be a terrific day, with a nice few bob being made for the club.

We'd like to especially thank Rick Manning and the Malahide crew for supporting the day, and to Stan Hardcastle and his mob from Scamander. We ended up with 51 players, which was brilliant.

St Marys racked up enough points to win the Inaugural Scamaryhide Trophy, and once again a big thanks to Stan Hardcastle, Glenn McDonald and Rick Manning for organising this three-way event. We hope it will grow each year. Thanks also to Coxy, Alana, Janice and all the crew for the great food.

Whilst on great food, we must pay tribute to all those involved in our spit roast and Trophy Presentation night last week, Friday 2nd Dec. What a meal. A very special thank you to Mark 'Birchy' Birch, for organising the pig and spit itself, and for watching over it for 5 hours that day, not to mention the cutting up and everything else. Great effort Mark, and thank you.

Thanks to Mick, Matthew and Speed, from St Marys Value Plus butchers, who helped prepare the meat for us. Let's not forget all those involved in organising the salads, spuds and sweets, and Trev for his 'waitering' skills. Maitre De Viney it is now. A special thanks to our bar staff, who each time do a brilliant job.

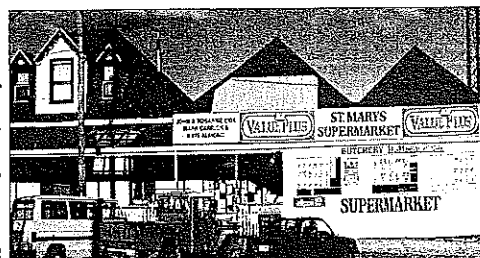

Congratulations again to our 2005 Trophy recipients. Too many to mention here but well done.

Whilst on that issue, Kodie will never forgive me if I don't mention his incredible score at the Scamaryhide Cup of 48 (yes 48) stableford points, which equated to about 78 off the stick. That is some sort of round, Kodie. Just watch the handicapper licking his lips with that card when he gets to it. Don't know about the hair colour though, mate, and yes, the Secretary might learn not to open his big trap next time, mightn't he.

Please remember this Sunday, Dec 11th is the rescheduled 27 hole mixed foursomes championship. Cost is $10 per player, and we hope for at least 8 teams, if not more. Starting time is 10am. See you there.

Back to bowls and St Marys sits in second position by 1 point, so we need a couple of good weeks at St Helens to cement our place. Its imperative we do well this week against their top team. So please try to get plenty of practice. There's still a few singles games to get through, so let's get onto them as well. That's if the rain stays away long enough.
