St Marys Old Cranks and Tinkerers Classic Vehicle Show 2011

Well the bumpers were polished, the gleam from the chassis was blinding and the drop in temperature and showers only deterred a few of our stalwart supporters.

Faulkner's Green was a mix of engineering marvels, colour and cars from yesteryear, still chugging along for all the admiring glances.

What a delight to hear and see some of the wonderment in the eyes of our youth who could not believe that some of these cars which were driven by their grandparents, are still providing a safe and comfortable journey.

Ryan Nibuur mesmerised the crowd with his ram jet engine display which he built himself... what an engineering accomplishment for this young man.

Every entry this year was given a complimentary ticket which was drawn at the end of the day. Congratulations to Craig Cox who held the winning number.

Thank you to the car, bus, engine and trailer enthusiasts who, every year, makes the journey to our great community to share their zeal and knowledge about motor vehicles.

To the community of St Marys, the Faulkner's for the use of the green and last but not least to the Cranks and Tinkerers themselves, namely Ian Summers, Bill Targett, Grant Faulkner, Reon Johns, Andrew Atherton, Jeff Springer, Marty Hornibrook, and Gehard Rist. Not to forget Jim Watson who volunteers each year to help make the day a success. We look forward to this successful event continuing year after year. Deserving congratulations to all of you.

"Cracker Night"

If you are ever in England around the 5th November, you will no doubt experience Bonfire Night, or Guy Fawkes Night. This is when many towns and villages across the country celebrate the traditional Guy Fawkes Day, with big community bonfires complemented with loud and colourful fireworks.

The tradition of the Guy Fawkes Day goes back to 1605 when a group of English Catholics tried to assassinate King James the First, an ardent Protestant. In the attempt, known as the "Gunpowder Plot", Guy Fawkes was caught guarding a cache of explosives placed under the House of Lords.

Following Fawkes arrest the King allowed the general public to make an effigy of Fawkes and burn it on a huge bonfire. From that day on November the 5th became known as Guy Fawkes Day and the tradition of bonfires, burning of the effigy and the letting off of fireworks continued.

The tradition was also brought to Australia with the early English settlers, but over the years as the new colony grew and developed its own traditions, most States, including Tasmania, moved towards Empire Day, the 24 May, as the best time for a bonfire celebration.

For most of the "oldies" growing up in the 40s and 50s, memories of cracker night are still quite vivid because there were three main events in a kid's life back then: Birthdays, Christmas and Cracker Night. The first week or so of the May school holidays would be spent dragging gum bows from the bush to make a bonfire that would be the biggest and the best in the district. As well, kids would save up their pocket money for months to buy those much sort after fireworks. There would be tom thumbs, big bangers, sky rockets, flower pots, sparklers, po-hahs, thunders, throw downs, Roman candles and of cause there were the colourful Catherine wheels fastened to the trees with nails.

Cornwall was always a good place for bonfires; indeed, most years there would be several burning around the town. One in particular, usually held on what is known as "The Flat" in the centre of town, would follow the English tradition of burning the Guy Fawkes effigy. The dummy was so real that on one occasion as the bonfires was lit a woman came running across the paddock screaming to put the fire out, that someone was on top of the heap.

1953 was a great year for bonfires; the day was moved from the 24th May to the 2nd June to celebrate the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II. Bonfires were everywhere and the heavens were lit up with every colour of the rainbow as sky rocket after sky rocket exploded into the sky. Normally peaceful communities came alive with the sound of crackers, some seemingly as loud as a stick of gelignite.

These days fireworks are mostly confined to New Years Eve, with the 24th May coming and going with hardly a bang or a blaze. Perhaps this is partly due to the banning of the unlimited sale of fireworks in Tasmania in the late 1980s. Or perhaps the lobbying from animal lovers, safety concerns by the fire department, or the fact that kids of today have more things to do than build bonfires, had something to do with the cracker night demise. To add to this, the type of fireworks available today have nowhere near the bang, plus you need to obtain a licence to purchase, as well as provide an approved area to let them off.

Whatever the reasons it would appear that Empire Day is completely forgotten today and will never return in its former glory. Australia Day on the 26th January has taken over with quite different types of celebrations. But for those who still remember Empire Day, I'm sure they will tell you that a BBQ and a beer is nowhere near as much fun as Cracker Night.

St Marys Association for Community Development Inc
GENERAL MEETING
Monday the 20th June at 11:00 am
At the St Marys Online Centre
23b, Main Street,
St Marys
ALL WELCOME

Public meeting report. Janet Drummond

The State DIER (Department of Infrastructure, Energy and Resources) held a public meeting to keep the public updated with the progress of the works on St Marys Pass and Elephant Pass on Monday 6th June at the St. Marys Town Hall.

The meeting was well attended by members of the community who were keen to hear about the progress of the works being conducted.

It was explained that works on the St Marys Pass are currently slightly ahead of schedule but this status can change at any time, depending on the weather conditions in the area. The completion date was left at June 21st but if the St Marys Pass were to open prior to that date, the community would be given plenty of notice of the new date. Photographs of the work were displayed for the community to look at.

Once the work on the St Marys Pass is completed there will be an ongoing audit of the work that has been conducted and of the Pass in general. Works will be conducted as required to maintain the status of the Pass in good condition.

The Elephant Pass will be closed once the St Marys Pass is reopened and work will commence on the Elephant Pass. Further community meetings will be called as deemed appropriate by DIER

Congratulations to the Cranks and Tinkerers for the impressive car display which was held on Faulkner's green.

Although the weather left a lot to be desired, it's hard to keep the stalwart car supporters away, especially when there was plenty of representation of engineering marvels from another era.

The Guild's Sausage King Entrepreneur's presence was accompanied by Mr Pat Wells (bicycle Pat) whose educated sensitive palate made sure that our snags were up to his exacting standards.

On a serious note the Guild has submitted for a volunteer grant which if successful would enable the club to purchase small sundries such as a new urn etc. Fingers crossed.

A gentle reminder that its time for membership renewal. ($16.00 for full membership $10.00 for ordinary membership).

Home Hint from the Guild:

If you have new towels that don't dry: Place half a cup of bicarb soda in with your washing powder and half a cup of white vinegar in the fabric conditioner slot. Wash in the normal way. It works!

The Guild would like to extend a warm welcome to whoever is successful in leasing the Old Railway Station, and hopes that the camaraderie which has been built up from previous occupiers will continue.

The Guild meets on the last Saturday of every month at 2pm in the old railway goods shed St Marys. New members always welcome. We are open Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Other times by appointment.

The Say Cagerattler

It was great to read recently that the Council was well and truly looking at being involved and investigating the proposed new Community Building at the historic Railway Station. This, in my humble opinion, is what Councils should be doing as one of their priority roles. Councils first and foremost should act in a way that encourages and supports developments that value-add to the community, provided of course it is financially sustainable, safe and wanted by the vast majority of that precinct it affects.

I personally know the people involved in the re-development strategy and I'm certain that if it all comes together as time proceeds then it will be a fantastic addition to a town (St Marys) in particular that will support and use such a facility well into the future. Of course this proposal is just that at present, and needs to go through consultation processes but with such things receiving due diligence it will show that this re-development will be fantastic for all of us.

Councils regularly get bagged (including me in this column) at times and on occasions they probably deserve it but in all honesty they do a pretty good job most of the time. This is a prime example of what Council can do. Let's just hope that a mass of building and budget interferences don't slow up the construction and usage of this new Centre too long into the future. Congratulations to ALL involved so far on a wonderful project and one day I'm sure it will be a beacon to get travellers to call in at and check out some of the fabulous local talents and incredible hospitality.

This of course brings up another matter. As it's been a while since mentioned I have been wondering about how things are going in regard to the Exhibition Hall as part of the St.Marys Recreational Ground Facilitation Committee Report completed in October 2006, which was adopted by Council in December 2006. Council was impressed with the report and supported the three recommendations. These three main areas that were key to the report were:

1.) Shower / Toilet Facilities (completed) 2.) Camping ground caravan short stay facility (well on the way to completion) and thirdly upgrading the Exhibition Hall which has yet to begin renovation but hopefully this will come to fruition not too long into the future because like the Railway Station concept this would allow community groups somewhere to run all sorts of things too diverse to mention here.

With all this done and including a 12 month Swimming Pool facility, already greatly improved short stay camping, arts/ cultural opportunities (Railway Station) etc. in place, St Marys could become not just a great place to stop for a little while, but indeed it could become a place where people from away set as a destination to do and see things, but locals could also long and short term benefit from at the same time. Wouldn't that be a great outcome on all sorts of fronts.

Joke for the day

A lady was up before court for stealing a can of peaches. The judge asked how many peaches were in the can. The lady said 8.

The judge said he would have to give the lady 8 years in gaol, one for each peach.

From the back of the courtroom a loud voice (her husbands) rang out, "She also stole a packet of frozen peas."

Speeding Drivers?

Waiting in Doncaster, England to catch speeding drivers, a police officer sees a car puttering along at 22 MPH.

Says he to himself: "This driver is just as dangerous as a speeder!" So he turns on his lights and pulls the driver over. Approaching the car, he notices that there are five old ladies, two in the front seats and three in the back...wide eyed and white as ghosts.

The driver, obviously confused, says to him "Officer, I don't understand, I was doing exactly the speed limit! What seems to be the problem?"

"Ma'am," the officer replies, "you weren't speeding, but you should know that driving slower than the speed limit can also be a danger to other drivers."

"Slower than the speed limit? No sir, I was doing the speed limit exactly...Twenty-two miles an hour!" ...the old woman says a bit proudly.

The police officer, trying to contain a chuckle explains to her that A22 is the road number, not the speed limit.

A bit embarrassed, the woman grins and thanks the officer for pointing out her error.

"But before I let you go, Ma'am, I have to ask....Is everyone in this car OK? These women seem awfully shaken, and they haven't made a sound this whole time," the officer asks.

"Oh, they'll be all right in a minute officer. We've just come off the A120."

St Marys Sports Centre Inc. news. Kackhander.

Despite the chilly weather it's been a real credit to all involved with the Trivia Night last week with a minimum of $400 being raised for improvements at the club. This of course didn't include other monies raised on the night so that figure would be greater than that of course. To everyone who either attended or organised. WELL DONE.

Also to the crew organising the TUCKER last Friday night. All commented on what a feed it was and such a great idea. Looks like it could be a regular thing.

Very important: The ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING is to be held this upcoming Saturday afternoon (June 18th) at 4.00 pm. Although it is to be held differently from the usual Friday night meetings until now, it is hoped that being an afternoon meeting it will mean many more will come along to help decide the future direction of the club. Some extremely important decisions have to be made to ensure the long term outcomes of the club and we need as much input as is possible for this to occur. PLEASE TRY TO ATTEND. Let's get some great outcomes on all fronts.

Hopefully plenty of golf, bowls green re-development work and maybe even a new or returned member or two might happen in the next few months. Let's hope so.
